

THE FATHER HELPS HIS CHILDREN

OBJECTIVE: Recognize that as humans we are weak therefore we need help from our heavenly father.

Verse to memorize: "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble."
(Psalm 46:1)

1-Our father is our Refuge

Let's see how David expresses himself.

Let's read Psalms 86:1-3

1- What are the two things David asks the Lord?

V1- _____

V1- _____

2-What is the reason why he asks this way to the Lord?

V1- _____

3-What did David ask for his life?

V2- _____

4-What is the reason as to why David prayed this way?

V2- _____

5-God's mercy came upon David, for what reason?

V3- _____

Let's see what other ways David prayed to the Lord the day that the Lord saved him from the hands of Saul and his enemy.

6- In Psalm 18:26 mention two things that David did when he was anguished?

- _____

- _____

7- How did the Lord answer David's prayer?

V16- _____

8-What happened when the David cried out to the Lord?

V16- _____

2-Our father is our strength

1-According to Isaiah 40:31 how does the Lord reward those who trust and wait upon him? Mention four things:

- _____

- _____

- _____

- _____

2-In 1st Samuel 17-44-45 mention how the philistine wanted to intimidate David.

V44- _____

3-Mention what was the giants strength, in did Goliath depend in? There are three things in verse 45.

- _____

- _____

- _____

4-In the same verse, mention whom David had his trust in and from whom his strength derived from.

V45- _____

5- As Christians, who gives us the strength to do all things? Read Philippians 4:13

- _____

6-In 2nd Corinthians 12:9 what two things?

- _____

3- Our father is our present help in the middle of our tribulation.

1- What is the security that we have in God in Psalm 121:3? Mention two of them:

- _____

- _____

2- According to John 16:33 who gives us peace?

- _____

3- In that same verse 33 what does the Lord Jesus say what we will go thru along our life in this world.

- _____

4- What does Jesus ask of us to obtain his peace, and why?

- _____

- _____